Known for its house party vibes, exceptional taste in music, a fabulously colourful menu and seriously exquisite cocktails, Lost Society, the beloved South West London hotspot is back. Prided on its impeccable decor and quirky style, the fashionable venue has returned with a unique new look.

Masterminded by London interior design firm, Casa Jaguar Design, the venue flaunts a decadent 1920's style art deco makeover providing a seriously big impact, complete with neon art and Instagram opportunities at every corner.

Some of the former Lost Society team including the owners, managers, cocktail connoisseurs, DJ's and doormen have re-united to make this comeback extra special, and we are thrilled to share their esteemed new cocktail, wine & food menus with you once again. An exciting varied billboard of events running throughout the week and into the weekend makes Lost Society the go to destination for any occasion. With regular live music, Disco Brunches, Sunday roasts, a particularly stunning new garden and the most decadent of private rooms available to hire, there is no question that Lost Society will once again re-establish itself as one of London's hottest destinations.
